One of the most endearing nights on the Grand Theatre calendar has been reanimated this year, with Britain's top bandleader and star vocalist, Andy Prior, headlining a night of sensational, well-crafted songs by Glen Miller, Frank Sinatra, Nat 'King' Cole, Irving Berlin and more.

Andy is the man who, in 1991, started the big band revival when he became the first resident bandleader in twenty-five years at Blackpool Tower Ballroom. Now, many albums and trophies later, and with spells as Musical Director of The Billy May Orchestra in Las Vegas, Andy Prior is the supreme exponent of the propulsive beat.

Veteran comedian Mick Miller, star of many Blackpool summer season shows and now a favourite on the 'alternative' comedy circuit, also joins us this evening.

This evening's programme will include a selection from the following; Almost Like Being In Love, Too Marvellous For Words, American Patrol, Blues In Hoss's Flat, Harlem Nocturne, Pennsylvania 65000, Just Think About Love, Woodchopper's Ball, Come Dance With Me, I've Got You Under My Skin, Mr. Anthony's Boogie, "A" Train, Impossible, Skin Deep, In The Mood, Pennies From Heaven, On A Slow Boat To China, Saturday Night, The Nearness Of You, I Wish You Love, Splanky, Come Fly With Me, Walking My Baby Back Home, For Once In My Life, The Lady Is A Tramp, Nevertheless, New York New York.

The midnight fun and frolics begin with Auld Lang Syne, 'in the wee small hours of the morning'....
