BLACKPOOL GRAND THEATRE

Magic Memories, Future Dreams...

Welcome to the second half of our 125th year! We've had great feedback about the programme so far and would like to thank everyone who's supported our efforts to raise £125,000 to mend our iconic copper dome.

At the time of writing, we've raised £68,000 but we've still got a way to go. So, if you haven't bought a pin badge or a raffle ticket from our lovely Friends of The Grand, this coming season would be a great chance to help.

As you'll see, there's quite a variety on offer, from nights at the opera to high drama and, this summer, for the first time ever, we've commissioned and will produce our own summer show – Around the World in 80s Days – a fast-moving comedy musical, packed with hit songs from the 80s and quirky characters from the 1880s. It will be great fun for all ages.

I look forward to seeing you soon.

Ruth Eastwood, Chief Executive

The Mousetrap

Starring Susan Penhaligon (Bouquet of Barbed Wire, A Fine Romance).

Discover why Agatha Christie's The Mousetrap has kept people guessing for so long, becoming the longest running show of any kind in the history of theatre.

The scene is set when a group of people gathered in a country house cut off by the snow discover, to their horror, that there is a murderer in their midst. Who can it be?

One by one the suspicious characters reveal their sordid pasts until at the last, nerveshredding moment the identity and the motive are finally revealed.

Experience shuddering suspense and a brilliantly intricate plot where murder lurks around every corner.

LipService presents:

Strangers on a Train Set

Challenging a youth to turn down his music, Irene Sparrow, inventor of the left-handed crochet hook, finds herself under suspicion of murder after the train emerges from a tunnel with the young man dead.

But this is no ordinary train, each passenger is reading a book, each book is a portal into a parallel universe of train related crime fiction.

With clever use of projection and train sets, LipService give you a whistle stop tour that will leave you breathless and racing for the refreshment coach.

So, don't blow your stack, this show is just the ticket to help you let off steam and overuse many more railway metaphors. A show that appeals to crime aficionados and narrowgauge railway enthusiasts alike.

The Woman in Black

Opening it's 2019 Tour in Blackpool!

Continuing its record-breaking run in the West End, the smash hit The Woman in Black now embarks on a major UK Tour opening at The Grand in September.

A lawyer obsessed with a curse that he believes has been cast over him and his family by the spectre of a Woman in Black, engages a sceptical young actor to help him tell his terrifying story and exorcise the fear that grips his soul. It all begins innocently enough, but then, as they reach further into his darkest memories, they find themselves caught up in a world of eerie marshes and moaning winds.

Susan Hill's acclaimed ghost story comes dramatically alive in Stephen Mallatratt's ingenious stage adaptation. This gripping production, directed by Robin Herford, is a brilliantly successful study in atmosphere, illusion and controlled horror.

Book now and join the millions of theatregoers worldwide who have experienced 'The most brilliantly effective spine-chiller you will ever encounter' Daily Telegraph.

Thu 10 to Sat 12 Oct

Royal Shakespeare Company presents:

RSC First Encounters

The Merchant of Venice

‘The world is still deceived by ornament.’

Venice is a multicultural melting pot and the trading centre of the world, a place where everything has a value. High stakes are placed on beauty and choices are made on appearance rather than reality.

But when one of three boxes holds all you’ve ever wanted, should you really decide on looks alone?

First Encounters with Shakespeare: The Merchant of Venice is a new production specially created for 7 to 13 year olds.

Directed by Robin Belfield, it uses an edited version of the original text to bring Shakespeare’s story of justice and mercy to life in just 90 minutes.

In collaboration with our regional theatre partners and Associate Schools, this production also sees 24 young actors from the RSC’s Next Generation Company take on the parts of Jessica and Lorenzo.

Angela Browne Ltd in association with Tabs Productions
presents:

Dangerous Obsession

It's a sunny afternoon in the Home Counties... Sally Driscoll is watering her plants in the conservatory of her luxurious home after an afternoon sunbathing. A peaceful scene – until a bespectacled, suited man suddenly appears at the door. John Barrett is not selling double glazing... it becomes clear that he is there looking for someone to take the blame for his wife's accident.

Dangerously obsessed and determined to seek retribution, Barrett strips away the conflicting secrets of the Driscoll's apparently perfect lives, until his twisted revenge climaxes in the devastating conclusion of this compulsive psycho thriller.

Private Peaceful

Divided by love. United by war.

'I've had nearly eighteen years of yesterdays and tomorrows, and tonight I must remember as many of them as I can.

Tonight, more than any other night of my life, I want to feel alive!'

Private Peaceful relives the life of Private Tommo Peaceful, a young First World War soldier awaiting the firing squad at dawn. During the night, he looks back at his short but joyful past: his exciting first days at school; the accident in the forest that killed his father; his adventures with Molly, the love of his life; and the battles and injustices of war that brought him to the front line. BLACKPOOL GRAND THEATRE

Tue 21 to Sat 25 Apr 2020

Written & Directed by Guy Unsworth. Based on the TV series by Raymond Allen

Some Mothers Do 'Ave' Em

Hilarious mishaps and DIY disasters are bringing the house down, quite literally, as Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em hits the road with Joe Pasquale (New Faces, I'm a Celebrity, Spamalot, The Producers) as the lovable accident-prone Frank Spencer.

Betty has exciting news for Frank, but he's preoccupied by possible new-found fame as a magician. With guests arriving for dinner and crossed wires all round, priceless misunderstandings are on the menu.

Based on the 1970s classic TV comedy by Ray Allen and directed by the award-winning Guy Unsworth, Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em is the ultimate feel-good night out, washed down with lashings of nostalgia and Mother's prune wine.

Quite Frank-ly, it's a hit!

'An evening of uncomplicated, very British jollity and it is done with theatrical skill.' Daily Mail.

'The irresistibly daft, likeable human Frank of brilliant Mr Pasquale.' Daily Mail.

'I laughed all the way through this wonderfully entertaining and hilarious play.' LondonTheatre1.

'Hugely enjoyable as laugh-out-loud entertainment. This is a farce with a heart and a welcome comeback for Frank Spencer' whatsonstage.

Spymonkey presents:

COOPED

To celebrate Blackpool Grand's 125th Anniversary and their own 20th Anniversary, Spymonkey are offering Blackpool audiences an unmissable opportunity to catch this deliciously demented take on the pulp gothic romance – think Hitchcock's Rebecca meets The Pink Panther. Overflowing with brilliant characters, rip-roaring farce and virtuoso physical comedy, this is the show which made them an international comedy sensation, from Just For Laughs Montreal to Sydney Opera House.

A spooky mansion, a plucky young heroine and a handsome English aristocrat. Add a German butler and a Spanish soap star and you're... COOPED with Spymonkey!

Directed by Cal McCrystal, the comedy genius behind One Man Two Guvnors, A Scouse Nativity and Paddington.

'One of the funniest pieces of theatre you will ever see, performed by four of the greatest clowns working in Britain today.' Time Out

Fri 8 Nov

Gary Clarke Company presents:

Wasteland

Created to mark the 25th anniversary since the demolition of Grimethorpe Colliery and 30 years since the rise of UK rave culture. As industrial Britain fell, a new sub-culture emerged.

In 1994 hundreds of coal miners hung up their pit boots as Grimethorpe Colliery was destroyed, along with the tight-knit working-class community that surrounded it. WASTELAND, Gary Clarke's sequel to COAL, looks at how two generations coped in this era of radical upheaval. As we see one generation grind to a halt, we follow the next into the 90s illegal rave scene, where derelict warehouses and abandoned work spaces became home for a new-found community of music and dance.

Bringing together Clarke's vivid physical dance language performed by a company of exceptional dancers, a community cast of male singers, brass musicians, archive film footage, a powerful rave soundscore and unique art work by Jimmy Cauty (co-founder of The KLF), WASTELAND dives head first into a gritty story of loss, hope, escapism and survival.

RSC Shakespeare Nation with the Grand Theatre,
Blackpool present:

Romeo & Juliet, A Grand Romance

This is a community co-production where the RSC and the Grand Theatre have brought together participants from community groups across Blackpool to create a performance piece that responds to the RSC's 2019 touring production of Romeo & Juliet. These are groups who would rarely meet, who would rarely set foot in a theatre and have little or no experience of Shakespeare.

Alongside scenes from Shakespeare's Romeo & Juliet you will hear the participants own stories of love and romance. You might already be familiar with the most famous story of love at first sight, this is your chance to come and share in the excitement of first love on Blackpool's Prom!

Shakespeare Nation is a Royal Shakespeare Company project produced in partnership with the Grand Theatre Blackpool, funded by the Esmée Fairbairn Foundation.

BLACKPOOL GRAND THEATRE

Grand Creative Programme

Every year we help thousands of young people enjoy live performance, share in the magic of making theatre, gain Arts Award qualifications and learn new skills with professional artists. We are proud to work in partnership with schools across Blackpool, Wyre and the Fylde.

This year local people will perform on the main stage in the Shakespeare Nation project, numerous amateur productions and alongside the professionals from the RSC.

We are also pleased to work closely with Edge Hill University and their under-graduates to give them access to the artists and staff who work on and around our stages as part of their wider learning about the realities of working in the arts industry.

Wed 30 Oct to Sat 2 Nov

Blackpool District Scout Council presents:

Blackpool Scout Gang Show

Come along and watch the Scouts and Guides from Blackpool as they return to the iconic Grand Theatre for their 58th Blackpool Scout Gang Show, a Show of song, dance and comedy.

It truly is a variety show for all the family. This year we are paying a tribute to the first men on the moon and we have a spooky and scary number to scare you out of your seats! To get the audience in a party mood the whole cast come together in a Rio carnival atmosphere, we sing about our wonderful world and celebrate songs from other countries as we take you on a whirlwind tour of Europe. Add to that the amazing individual talents of our cast, our own take on a traditional tale involving Pirates, Indians and a crocodile and traditional songs and much more.

Never seen a Gang Show before, not sure what one is, then please book now and come and see us. A show where you can sit back, relax, join in with songs you will know and be entertained by the members of Blackpool Gang Show – You are in for a real treat!

Ticket Terms

To view our full terms and conditions go to blackpoolgrand.co.uk

1. Booking fees: In line with legislation our per ticket booking fee is now INCLUDED in all stated prices. The exchange of tickets to a different performance of the same show is subject to a charge per ticket. If you are unable to attend a performance for which you have booked, the box office will attempt to resell your tickets, although the selling of any unsold seats must take priority. There is a service charge for each ticket resold. Exchanges are free of charge to Friends of The Grand (24hrs prior). Refunds cannot be made on tickets. Fees can be changed at any time.

2. The Management reserves the right: to make alterations to the advertised cast and programme; not to admit latecomers until a suitable time; to refuse admission; to refuse admittance to unaccompanied minors.

3. Tickets are purchased for personal use only and are not purchased as any form of business or commercial activity. Tickets may not be resold or offered for re-sale by anyone at a premium or otherwise. Resale or attempted resale is grounds for cancellation without refund or notice.

4. Use of photographic, sound recording and mobile communications equipment is forbidden and you will be asked to leave the premises. No refund will be offered.

5. Discounted Seats: Patrons must state discounts they are entitled to at the time of booking, as they cannot be applied retrospectively and are subject to availability. Discounts only apply to selected shows where discounts are shown: Babies/children under 2 are welcome free if they share a seat with you (a ticket is still required for them), Family Tickets (Min

1, max 2 adults), some exceptions may occur on babies/children/family tickets.

Concessions: full-time students, Under 18s, Friends of The Grand, disabled, jobseekers and the over 60s. Only one concession applies per ticket. Photo and DOB ID is required when requesting. Occasionally the producer of a show, with the agreement of the Theatre, will offer discounts and special offers through mailings, e-flyers, e-newsletters and texting services. These offers and discounts cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer or discount and have no cash value. The Theatre will not offer refunds retrospectively.

6. The ticket holder is entitled to a seat of the value corresponding to that shown on the ticket and the Theatre reserves the right to provide alternative seating to those specified on the ticket. Where seating of a lesser value only is available, the ticket holder will be compensated to a maximum of the difference in value between the cost of the seats. The ticket holder may be re-seated in higher priced seating at no additional cost at the discretion of the Theatre Management. In the event of a cancellation of a performance or event, the Theatre shall have no further liability other than the face value of the ticket.

7. Productions do not always feature live music and may contain loud noises, smoke or strobe lighting. Some productions may be performed by amateur companies.

8. Data Protection: When processing your booking the box office will ask your name, address, email address and telephone number. The Grand Theatre, Blackpool operates a box office service on behalf of venues and events in Blackpool, Wyre and Fylde as well as its own operation. We would like to add or retain your details for speed of booking and for our marketing department so we can keep you aware of events and
